COOKIES

What are they?

A cookie is a file that is downloaded to your PC, tablet, smartphone or other terminal (hereinafter, the "Device") when you access a web page or application.

Cookies allow you to store and retrieve information about browsing habits or the device from which the user accesses, generally anonymously and, depending on the information they contain, if the latter is previously registered, in order to recognise him or her as a user or customer.

The information refers to the number of pages visited, the language, the place from which one accesses, the number of new users, the frequency and repetition of visits, the duration of the visit, the browser or the device through which one connects.

What are the Cookies used by this website?

This website uses the so-called "Technical" cookies for the sole purpose of transmitting a communication over an electronic network, or to the extent strictly necessary to the provider of a service explicitly requested by the User, in order to provide this service.

Cookies of this type are necessary for the correct functioning of some areas of the site and include:

- Persistent Cookies, which are not destroyed immediately after closing the Browser, but remain until a preset expiration date;
- Session Cookies, also destroyed immediately after closing the Browser.

These cookies avoid the use of other computer techniques potentially detrimental to the confidentiality of users' browsing and do not allow the acquisition of the user's personal identification data.

In the absence of such cookies, the website or some portions of it may not function properly. Therefore, they are always used, regardless of the user's preferences.

Profiling Cookies

Cookies aimed at creating profiles relating to the user and are used in order to send advertising messages in line with the preferences expressed by the same in the context of web browsing. Due to the particular invasiveness that such devices may have in the private sphere of users, European and Italian legislation provides that the user must be adequately informed about the use of the same and thus express their valid consent.

Third-party cookies

These cookies are used in order to collect information on the use of the Website by users in anonymous form such as: pages visited, time spent, origins of traffic, geographical origin, age, gender and interests for the purposes of marketing campaigns. These cookies are sent by third-party domains external to the Website.

Cookies to integrate third-party software products and functions

This type of cookie integrates features developed by third parties within the pages of the Website such as icons and preferences expressed in social networks in order to share the content of the website or for the use of third-party software services (such as software to generate maps and additional software that offer additional services). These cookies are sent by third-party domains and partner websites that offer their functionality among the pages of the Website.

The user can, freely and at any time, configure his or her privacy parameters in relation to the installation and use of Cookies, directly through his or her navigation programme (browser) by consulting the reference links and following the relative instructions.

The user can set the so-called "private browsing", thanks to which its browsing programme stops saving the history of the sites visited, any passwords entered, cookies and other information on the pages visited.

Please note that if you decide to disable all cookies, the quality and speed of the services offered by this website could deteriorate drastically and you could lose access to some sections of the website.

Social button

There are multiple social buttons on this site, which link users to our page.
